The Trades Magazine

RE: Advertisements from The Trades: (Landscape Architect and Parks & Rec)

RockCraft Designs have very recently started advertising in these two magazines. Within the last two months, we have had one basic advertisement in Landscape Architect, and one full feature month with Parks & Rec.

I have been receiving numerous calls from both ad's. I started receiving calls within days after each magazine was distributed.

With our Parks & Rec ad, being the larger feature to date, I have been receiving multiple calls daily.

I look forward to the same amount of calls from our next months full page feature from the Landscape Architect.

From my experience, these magazines have had above average leads. I couldn't be more pleased with the results.
